Inspired pupils from Inverurie Academy win 1st and 4th Prize Gold in Commonwealth Games inspired project.

Major Commonwealth Games educational project inspire>aspire inspires 36,000-plus pupils in Scotland to use the learning opportunities from the Games to commit to their vision for a better world.

National finalists were honoured at the inspire>aspire National Awards in the Bute Hall at The University of Glasgow on Monday June 16th. National prize winners were awarded their gold, silver and bronze placed medals by BBC Correspondent and Adventurer Mark Beaumont during Primary and Secondary ceremonies.

Gabrielle Edward from Inverurie Academy was awarded the highest prize at the event, 1st Prize Gold at the ceremony whilst Carla Banks was awarded 4th Prize Gold.

Gabrielle chose J.K. Rowling as her inspirational figure as part of her work during the Legacy 2014 project. Explaining the reasons for her choice, Gabrielle said: "She taught me that even if I hit rock bottom then I can rebuild my own life because dreams do come true if you work to achieve them."

Carla's vision for a better world shone in her poster, she said: "It would be great to see the world where violence, torture and bullying no longer exist."

During Mark Beaumont's keynote speech, he encouraged pupils to: "Make the most of the celebrations that are coming to Scotland this summer. Now you've been a successful part of inspire>aspire and drawn your posters and are here to celebrate it, go out and find out what other people have written, the world they live in and what they are aspiring to be."

Cabinet Secretary for Commonwealth Games and Sport, Shona Robison, said: "I warmly congratulate the winners, and finalists, from the inspire>aspire awards. Indeed, a big 'well done' goes to all the 36,000-plus children in Scottish schools who have participated in this educational 'Global Citizens in the Making' programme.

"Offered through Game On Scotland, this Supporting Legacy 2014 Project uses the 2014 Games as an inspiring springboard to encourage children to develop personal action plans based on Commonwealth values.

"By enabling children in Scotland to establish sustainable partnerships with peers from around the Commonwealth, and helping them to share their values, aspirations and visions for the future, it is to be highly commended for empowering young people to become responsible global citizens.

"inspire>aspire is thus a valued partner in supporting our Legacy ambitions, to create a lasting and positive Games Legacy which places young people at its heart."

With 36,000-plus pupils participating in the programme from Scotland this year it was a truly notable achievement for the 220 Primary and Secondary finalists. Participation from England, Northern Ireland, Wales and 42 of the 71 Commonwealth Nations and Territories took overall participation numbers to 56,000 pupils.

Gabrielle explained how much of an impact participating in inspire>aspire has had on her: “I feel that I have learned a lot about myself and I will now be able to improve myself for the future.”

The National Awards culminated what has been a successful year for inspire>aspire with participation in all 32 local authorities achieved for the first time in the projects 7 year history (previously operating as Learning for Life and Olympic Values).
